6:08 pm edcabellon Ed Cabellon, Director of the @BSCcampuscenter Bridgewater State College (MA) #SAchat

6:08 pm JGinese23 OK so shall we get into the topic? #sachat

6:09 pm slhealy Has anyone ever done a map of where SA-chatters are? It seems heavily east coast concentrated! #sachat

6:09 pm m1hamilton so good topic today, career decisions and moving on where are we starting? #sachat

6:09 pm jmajojr @slhealy thats a good idea #sachat

6:09 pm m1hamilton @slhealy so are the colleges/universities in the us :) #sachat

6:09 pm Brown_Melissa @slhealy It just might be because of the time- it's 11 a.m. for west coasters, that might be harder #sachat

6:09 pm JGinese23 @slhealy great idea! #sachat

6:10 pm jonsampson Jon --reslifer from LA area #sachat

6:10 pm AndreaHart was just about to type that :) RT @m1hamilton: @slhealy so are the colleges/universities in the us :) #sachat

6:10 pm slhealy @m1hamilton True. I'm trying to rep for the midwest! #sachat

6:10 pm JGinese23 @Brown_Melissa good point...I wonder if there are more West Coasters on the PM chat then? #sachat

6:10 pm slhealy @Brown_Melissa Ohhh, time zones. My worst enemy! That makes sense though! #sachat

6:10 pm kprentiss @slhealy if everyone turned on geotagging in twitter during sachat we could do it. It does feel east coast, but so are the schools. #sachat

6:10 pm KARupert time zones #sachat

6:11 pm jmayojr @slhealy you know the midwest is everything from OH to CA, thats a huge area (-; #sachat

6:11 pm Geralyn5 @slhealy I was thinking that today too!! about the time zones!! lol #sachat

6:11 pm pereirap80 Opps...didn't intro myself. Pete here. I'm @ Tx A&M - San Antonio where I work in Campus Activities. Oh, & SHIP alum :) #sachat

6:11 pm kprentiss @slhealy california, at least, is a little busy with protests this morning. #sachat

6:11 pm chrsblckbrn Chris Blackburn - Greek Life Director... Topic of the day? #sachat

6:11 pm KARupert Isn't there a higher population of schools on the eastern side of the U.S. #sachat

6:11 pm jonsampson @jmayojr @slhealy Hey now - we CA people don't claim the midwest :) #sachat

6:11 pm sarahhcraddock @Brown_Melissa 10am for West Coast and 11am for Mountain time :) #sachat

6:11 pm Geralyn5 @jesstini85 I hope you love it!! I know @shillis and I do!! #sachat

6:11 pm lvanlysal I think we need a MOD prompt to get us going @The_SA_Blog #sachat

6:12 pm bryan_koval Lately on #sachat there has been a lot about 1st time job searches . . . who else is checking out a midlevel upgrade?

6:12 pm rkaplan13 I think it's more concentrated - smaller area, more schools@KARupert #sachat

6:12 pm jchan027 Jason here. I oversee academic advising & leadership programs at a scholarship fund in DC. #sachat #sachat

6:12 pm edcabellon @chrsblckbrn Welcome Chris! #SAchat

6:12 pm pereirap80 @kprentiss I turned on the geotagging #sachat

6:12 pm chrsblckbrn I will apologize to all my followers -- I'm about to blow up my tweets for #sachat!

6:12 pm jmayojr @KARupert yes, i think the majority of schools are in the northeast PA to ME #sachat

6:12 pm KARupert @rkaplan13 You are probably right, it just seems like we have so many schools in such a small area #sachat

6:12 pm Brown_Melissa @sarahhcraddock Oh! oops on my times...I should know better- my BFF lives in Alaska #sachat

6:12 pm Geralyn5 @bryan_koval I would be about ready for that in a year! #sachat

6:13 pm pereirap80 @m1hamilton I think it's important to make sure you have & can articulate transferrable skills #sachat

6:13 pm slhealy @jonsampson @jmajojr Don't even get me started on Midwest geography. :) #sachat

6:13 pm AndreaHart @chrdblckbrn @the_sa_blog Career decision making. Where do I go from here? Join us 12-1 pm CST. Please share! #sachat

6:13 pm Brown_Melissa @m1hamilton Meaning changing functional areas? #sachat

6:13 pm KARupert @m1hamilton Make sure to know how to use your transferable skills and seel those in whatever area interests you #sachat

6:13 pm jmajojr Me too! RT @pereirap80: @kprentiss I turned on the geotagging #sachat

6:14 pm lvanlysal This is my 5th year in my position. I'm considering a search if my job doesn't evolve. also pursuing a doctoral degree. #sachat

6:14 pm m1hamilton @Brown_Melissa yes. Like reslife to student activities or career services on a lateral position level. #sachat

6:14 pm AndreaHart @bryan_koval I will probably be looking to do a mid-level search next year. lurking today out of curiosity. #sachat

6:14 pm tobiasblake Where do you see yourself in 3years? 5yrs? in #studentaffairs #sachat

6:14 pm Brown_Melissa @bryan_koval I am in some ways- I worked ft for 7 years before grad school in and out of SA- not looking for a trad entry level pos. #sachat

6:14 pm Geralyn5 @m1hamilton I would say get involved with those other areas. volunteer for things they are doing, shadow #sachat

6:14 pm lvanlysal @m1hamilton Committees and collaborative projects can get you that transferable experience you need to switch functional area #sachat

6:14 pm jmajojr @bryan_koval I'm looking to go up if possible, but a lateral move is just as good for this year #sachat

6:14 pm courtneysprague if you know you want to change areas I think it's important to try and get involved in that area before and gain exposure #sachat

6:15 pm kriscarr442 Having transferable skills is important, but also learning more about the job of another area is too #sachat

6:15 pm jmajojr I'm looking to relocate back to New England #sachat

6:15 pm slhealy I was surprised that I didn't get any 3/5/10 year plan questions in #saplacement interviews. #sachat

6:15 pm sarahhcraddock @bryan_koval Me! #sachat

6:15 pm pereirap80 RT @Geralyn5: @m1hamilton I would say get involved with those other areas. volunteer for things they are doing, shadow #sachat

6:15 pm JGinese23 @lvanlysal you bring up a good point! When should one pursue a PhD? or EdD? I see more director positions requiring PhDs...#overkill #sachat

6:15 pm bryan_koval @AndreaHart I'm casually job searching for a mid-level position . . . I'm on a term limit and my current position ends next year. #sachat

6:15 pm courtneysprague which can help with transferable skills and knowledge of the area as well #sachat

6:15 pm rkaplan13 From your experience, does it seem as though this is turning out to be a bad year to be searching based on school's hiring freezes? #sachat

6:15 pm jonsampson RT @lvanlysal: Committees and collaborative projects can get you that transferable experience you need to switch areas #sachat

6:15 pm Brown_Melissa Those transferable skills are key. #sachat

6:15 pm jkilmer I think as you move up or around the mid-level arena you are more pointed in your searches and also less public about them...#sachat

6:16 pm sarahhcraddock @m1hamilton That's also what I'm doing - moving to midlevel, but maybe a different f(x) area. #sachat

6:16 pm KARupert @rkaplan13 Yes!! I went through the job search process from may-december and it was very rough #sachat

6:16 pm pereirap80 @JGinese23 it's definately becoming the nore for directors to have a EdD or PhD...I'm thinking about it now #sachat

6:16 pm slhealy @rkaplan13 Doing interviews currently, a lot of positions are anticipated - based on if the current person finds a new job. #sachat

6:16 pm shillis @slhealy I was surprised that I didn't get any 3/5/10 year plan questions #sachat I think bc there is such high turnover in entry level :(

6:16 pm jmayojr @m1hamilton i think it depends on the size of the school too, those of use @ sm schools do a lot of multiarea work #sachat

6:16 pm sarahhcraddock @rkaplan13 I think this year is a LOT better than what I saw last year. I mean, leaps and bounds better. #sachat

6:16 pm bryan_koval @jkilmer That's a good call. I'm open about looking, but I'm not just looking for anything. Very focused (task and geography). #sachat

6:16 pm m1hamilton @rkaplan13 watching postings for the past 4 years . i think this years looks like it is going to be one of the better in openings #sachat

6:17 pm slhealy @sarahhcraddock You just made the engineering and math nerd inside me smile with the "f(x)" abbreviation. #sachat

6:17 pm kriscarr442 I lost who said it, but what do y'all think about timing for went to pursue a PhD,EdD? #sachat

6:17 pm m1hamilton @rkaplan13 but it still comes down to the number of quality candidates. #sachat

6:17 pm edcabellon Make sure when you earn your Ph.D. or Ed.D. that you have enough complimentary experience, #SAchat

6:17 pm lvanlysal @rkaplan13 depends on the functional area. Reslife can usually always hire. Our other areas are a little strapped. #sachat

6:17 pm JGinese23 @pereirap80 so are you seeing more positions then offering to pay for Phds then to keep director level emps around? #sachat

6:17 pm rkaplan13 @m1hamilton I feel as though it's been plentiful for Residential Life but not necessarily for mid level activities or leadership #sachat

6:17 pm JeannetteMarie lurking #sachat

6:17 pm chrsblckbrn @jmayojr: I agree -- small schools/multi area work load can help narrow down what you want to do long term #sachat

6:17 pm Geralyn5 @kriscarr442 I vote for when you're in a mid-level position. So you can get experience #sachat

6:18 pm courtneysprague @sarahhcraddock agreed I was searching last year and it didn't seem as much was posted or hiring but looking at TPE there are more #sachat

6:18 pm jkilmer @JGinese23: i think the PhD is becoming more popular like the Master's did 5+ years ago but I dont see many GA positions for PHD #sachat

6:18 pm jonsampson @edcabellon how much experience would you say is complimentary? #sachat

6:18 pm bryan_koval @kriscarr442 I'm in my first year of an Ed.D. program now . . . it made the best sense in my family life to start, so I did! #sachat

6:18 pm JGinese23 @pereirap80 or perhaps is it wrong to assume that an institution would support your pursuit of a Phd/EdD? #sachat

6:18 pm slhealy @JeannetteMarie Glad you could make it! :) #sachat

6:18 pm AndreaHart @kriscarr442 I want to pursue one eventually, but I'm not sure I'm ready to jump in again! I'm not quite 3 years out of my Masters. #sachat

6:18 pm m1hamilton RT @edcabellon: Make sure when you earn your Ph.D. or Ed.D. that you have enough complimentary experience, #sachat

6:18 pm kriscarr442 @edcabellon can you clarify what you mean by complimentary experience? #sachat

6:18 pm edcabellon @kriscarr442 Get the degree after you've earned SA experience and you're ready to balance both work and school again. #SAchat

6:18 pm jmayojr @chrslckbrn it has helped me a lot #sachat

6:18 pm JGinese23 RT @jonsampson: @edcabellon how much experience would you say is complimentary? #sachat good question!

6:18 pm chrslckbrn @jmayojr: Plus if you want to be senior mgt one day -- you need a wide spectrum of experiences! #sachat

6:19 pm edcabellon @jonsampson That depends :-). For me, someone with 5-10 yrs experience be minimum. Ask yourself why you want it. #SAchat

6:19 pm sarahhcraddock @kriscarr442 I think it depends on ultimate career goals - I want to teach, so slightly earlier for me (hence why I'm in one now) #sachat

6:19 pm rkaplan13 @edcabellon Is a Phd or EdD judged the same, or is one better than another? #sachat

6:19 pm courtneysprague @chrslckbrn how do you accomplish that if you're already in a pretty narrow functional area? #sachat

6:19 pm Geralyn5 @jmayojr The small school thing does really help with getting the other exper. Thats how it was for me in PA #sachat

6:19 pm sarahhcraddock @rkaplan13 I'd say there's some leadership, but not a whole lot - but I think that's just the field in general? #sachat

6:19 pm edcabellon I see in young pros the eagerness to get that degree to "get it done", or b/c they feel they have to. #SAchat

6:19 pm briannemcd Can I join? I'm an RA at Bridgewater State! #SAchat

6:20 pm m1hamilton i have know a few people that have gone to school straight through to Ed.D and only have GA exp and hirers can be intimidate by ed. #sachat

6:20 pm BlackburnArea RT @chrslckbrn2010Chris Blackburn - Greek Life Director... Topic of the day? #sachat

6:20 pm lvanlysal @jkilmer Good point. I'm doing doctoral program while working full-time. Big commitment. #sachat

6:20 pm JGinese23 @briannemcd WELCOME!! #sachat

6:20 pm jmayojr @briannemcd welcome. I was an RA at BSC too! #sachat

6:20 pm jonsampson @rkaplan13 @edcabellon I know a PhD is more valuable if you want to move to teaching. Not sure about #studentaffairs side #sachat

6:20 pm kriscarr442 In grad school I was told if you are interested, or bound for upper positions to be looking at PhD in 2-3years #sachat

6:20 pm edcabellon From what I can gather, if you want to teach, go Ph.D, if you want to be a Senior SA pro, get the Ed.D. But others may think diff. #SAchat

6:20 pm sarahhcraddock @m1hamilton There are some people in my program like that...it's definitely a challenge after getting the degree. #sachat

6:20 pm Brown_Melissa @m1hamilton I can totally see that, back when I was on the interviewer end we wanted to see practical experience #sachat

6:21 pm tsand #sachat I've been a Student Affairs web guy for 7 years. I've never once been bored. BIG reason, the Web is constantly evolving.

6:21 pm Geralyn5 @briannemcd yay!! Welcome :) #sachat

6:21 pm sarahhcraddock @briannemcd Welcome! #SAchat

6:21 pm debrasanborn RT @edcabellon: Make sure when you earn your Ph.D. or Ed.D. that you have enough complimentary experience, #SAchat

6:21 pm sarahhcraddock @Ivanlysal Yeah, I'm full time professional and part time student #sachat

6:21 pm KARupert I was told 4 years exp is great to start a PhD program, b/c you are still gaining functional experience throughout the program #sachat

6:21 pm Ivanlysal The PhD/EdD argument can go on forever. I say get the one you want. Impressions vary among institutions/departments. #sachat

6:21 pm JGinese23 so regarding the PhD or EdD what about getting a second masters? I have my MBA but would love a Masters of Ed Tech for instance. #sachat

6:21 pm pereirap80 @m1hamilton IMHO, it's silly to go str8 for a doctoral degree w/out the exp. Awesome, you know theories but how do you apply them? #sachat

6:22 pm edcabellon For sure: if you want to be a Senior #studentaffairs officer, you will need your terminal degree. #SAchat

6:22 pm debrasanborn RT @Ivanlysal: I wrote up a post on the SA Blog about my choice to pursue a doctorate. You need to feel "the itch" <http://bit.ly/aSEe8o> #sachat

6:22 pm rkaplan13 I think the biggest question for new professionals is knowing when to take that first jump to a new job and if lateral is ok #sachat

6:22 pm jkilmer Again it comes down to what you are able to balance in terms of working, class/PhD work, money, family, etc - HUGE commitment #sachat

6:22 pm pereirap80 @edcabellon that's the impression I am under. #sachat

6:22 pm rkaplan13 or is it appropriate to expect to move up in the field after 2 or 3 years of entry level experience #sachat

6:22 pm chrsblckbrn @courtneysprague Volunteer to assist other offices! I help with Student Life, Comm. Service, Career Services, and program with them #sachat

6:22 pm jmayojr when i was a grad my prog was 1/2 PhD and 1/2 EdD, to me there wasn't much of a difference, I learned a lot from each #sachat

6:22 pm jenontheblock In higher education, it is the PhD that matters... #sachat

6:23 pm jmayojr the EdDs had more "real world" experience and the PhDs had more research #sachat

6:23 pm bryan_koval @JGinese23 I'm in the Higher Ed Admin cohort program at GWU (<http://gsehd.gwu.edu/hea>) #sachat

6:23 pm kris carr442 @rkaplan13 I agree #sachat

6:23 pm rkaplan13 @jenontheblock Hey Jen! #sachat

6:23 pm chrsblckbrn @courtneysprague It gives exp. you can put on your resume and things you can talk about! Even if they aren't your direct duties! #sachat

6:23 pm courtneysprague @chrsblckbrn Thanks I've tried doing it, our university is small and silioed so working on getting into it #sachat

6:23 pm edcabellon @tobiasblake Not they have enough experience to base any research on. If your goal is to be a Director, you don't need it. #SAchat

6:23 pm JGinese23 @bryan_koval I was just looking at that one! #sachat

6:24 pm JGinese23 @jenontheblock so wait a PhD with 5-10 yrs exp would trump a Masters with 10-15 yrs exp? on paper anyways #sachat

6:24 pm JenPaulin @briannemcd Welcome Bri! Good to see you on #sachat!

6:24 pm m1hamilton RT @rkaplan13:I think the biggest question 4 new professionals is knowing when 2 take that first jump to a new job and if lateral ok #sachat

6:24 pm debrasanborn RT @edcabellon: For sure: if you want to be a Senior #studentaffairs officer, you will need your terminal degree. #SAchat

6:24 pm courtneysprague @rkaplan13 I agree what is better 1, 2, 3 years and when is it acceptable to change insitutions? #sachat

6:24 pm briannemcd would moving laterally be okay- especially in different offices! it just broadens your experiences! #sachat!

6:24 pm edcabellon I know I want my Ed.D someday, but with a young family, I'm choosing to wait. It's just a matter of time before I get it :-) #SAchat

6:24 pm lvanlysal @owendrew Interesting, but I've always felt I learn more from doing than reading, so I wouldn't take non-degree courses. just me. #sachat

6:24 pm bryan_koval @lvanlysal We just have so many people who want to move up, and so few positions that become open. It's tough. #sachat

6:25 pm JGinese23 RT @lvanlysal I think 2-3 years is plenty to move up, if you're looking at small schools. Hard to move up in large schools #sachat

6:25 pm briannemcd @JenPaulin haha I saw you and Ed were on! I don't know what I'm doing but it's interesting! #sachat

6:25 pm jchan027 RT @edcabellon For sure: If you want to be a senior #studentaffairs officer, you will need your terminal degree. #sachat #sachat

6:26 pm edcabellon Advice: Stay in your current position for at least three years. Give you and your institution the chance to grow together. #SAchat

6:26 pm jenontheblock Agreed... Volunteer/practicim with other offices to get other kinds of experiences (even as a professional! I've seen this work!) #sachat

6:26 pm m1hamilton i think that it has to be said that you cant expect to move up in 2-3 years tho. sometimes there just arent the jobs available. #sachat

6:26 pm sarahhcraddock @slhealy Glad to help! Functional is just too much work to type :) #sachat

6:26 pm jmayojr @edcabellon thats the same thing I'm doing... I'm going to wait a while mainly for family reasons #sachat

6:26 pm Brown_Melissa Do you have to get a position at another college in order to move up typically? #sachat

6:26 pm edcabellon @briannemcd Hello Brienne :-) Ready for your spring break? How's BSC been while I've been gone? #bsclife #SAchat

6:26 pm jkilmer @courtneysprague there is no acceptable time. I ask myself: do I enjoy what i do, am i continuing to make a difference. then decide #sachat

6:26 pm AndreaHart RT @edcabellon: Advice: Stay in your current position for at least 3 years. Give you + your institution the chance to grow together #sachat

6:26 pm pereirap80 @edcabellon Me too...I'm just starting mine. #sachat

6:26 pm Geralyn5 I made a lateral move but the position responsibilities were different and the school was different #sachat

6:26 pm BeccaFick RT @edcabellon: Advice: Stay in your current position for at least three years. #sachat

6:26 pm jmayojr @m1hamilton thats true #sachat

6:26 pm chrsblckbrn AGREED! Or just sheer luck! RT @edcabellon If you want to be a senior #studentaffairs officer, you will need your terminal degree. #sachat

6:27 pm JGinese23 @edcabellon what if your institution isn't focused on developing you and has other priorities (i.e. budget, staffing, etc)? #sachat

6:27 pm shillis In entry level, I was 18-24 months at job Makes changes when they make sense. Look for ops that benefit #sachat @courtneysprague @rkaplan13

6:27 pm slhealy RT @edcabellon: Stay in your current position for at least 3 years. Give you and your institution the chance to grow together. #sachat

6:27 pm m1hamilton @Brown_Melissa sometimes it helps to make a lateral move to get new experience. #sachat

6:27 pm JGinese23 hahah which is NOT my situation - just to clarify #sachat

6:27 pm briannemcd @m1hamilton hi! I remember you from BSC! #sachat

6:27 pm shillis RT @jkilmer: @courtneysprague there is no acceptable time. I ask myself: do I enjoy what i do, am i continuing to make a difference. then decide #sachat

6:27 pm bryan_koval @lvanlysal Same here. All of our central staff folks are 5+ years with the department (most are 10+) #sachat

6:27 pm jenontheblock @JGinese23 i'veseen some positions here call for a PhD as the only qualification, when the position should have called for an MA #sachat

6:27 pm AndreaHart @KARupert if its not a good fit, that is a good reason to move on for me. #sachat

6:27 pm lynnellison Hello, all! Joining #sachat late from the TPE Employer Workroom.

6:27 pm jkilmer @lvanlysal @bryan_koval yup. Folks here will stay in a director job for 20-30 years. Not uncommon at all. #sachat - same here #sachat

6:27 pm m1hamilton @briannemcd and i remember you, and your brother. #sachat

6:27 pm pereirap80 @KARupert You should get exps in the other areas your interested then. Via volunteering, committees, etc #sachat

6:27 pm courtneysprague I decided to get an MBA after my MS and then go for the Ph.D. but i feel the MBA will help with more senior level decisions #sachat

6:27 pm Geralyn5 develop yourself! RT @JGinese23: what if your institution isn't focused on developing you and has other priorities #sachat

6:28 pm edcabellon @JGinese23 Its on you to create/manufacture those opportunities. Use those perseverance stories in your future interviews. #Sachat

6:28 pm Ivanlysal @Brown_Melissa I'd say unless you're willing to switch functional areas, yes. But there are always exceptions. #sachat

6:28 pm shillis back to lurking on #sachat Afternoon full of meetings before Spring Break!

6:28 pm rkaplan13 Any advice on how to navigate the politics when the institution and supervisors make it difficult for that to happen@edcabellon #sachat

6:28 pm jenontheblock RT @jkilmer: @Ivanlysal @bryan_koval yup. Folks here will stay in a director job for 20-30 years. Not uncommon at all. #sachat - same here #sachat

6:28 pm kriscarr442 @geralyn5 good question #sachat

6:28 pm JGinese23 @Geralyn5 @edcabellon good points - again wasn't speaking about myself but have heard of that situation in the past with other peers #sachat

6:28 pm johnsilveria Advice- time in post may not matter, but having 3-4 identifiable accomplishments in whatever time period you are there will #sachat

6:29 pm JeannetteMarie @lynnellison There are some great candidates from BGSU at TPE #sachat

6:29 pm Geralyn5 @shillis we are on break now... #sachat

6:29 pm JeannetteMarie @edcabellon Having trouble creating opps for pro dev here. Blocked by admin at every turn. :(#sachat

6:29 pm JGinese23 RT @johnsilveria: time in post may not matter, but having 3-4 identifiable accomp in whatever time period you are there will #sachat

6:29 pm JenPaulin RT @johnsilveria: Advice- time in post may not matter, but having 3-4 identifiable accomplishments in whatever time period you are there will #sachat

6:29 pm jmayojr @Geralyn5 we are too, only two days left #sachat

6:30 pm sethagler Hi #sachat folks! I'm boarding my flight out of NYC from #ACUI2010. Great to meet some of you this week!

6:30 pm m1hamilton RT @johnsilveria: Advice- time in post may not matter, but having 3-4 identifiable accomps in whatever time period you are ther will #sachat

6:30 pm kriscarr442 @johnsilveria and good stories to tell during interviews about them, don't rely on the resume page #sachat

6:30 pm jmayojr @JeannetteMarie I"m getting that too #sachat

6:30 pm Ivanlysal Do your supervisors help you with these decisions? Mine has very purposeful discussions w/ me about my career path, needed exp, etc #sachat

6:30 pm jenontheblock Time in the position is not as important as what you learned - good and bad - from the experience. #sachat

6:30 pm pereirap80 @JeannetteMarie Thank goodness for #sachat then!

6:30 pm johnsilveria @courtneysprague good call, did the same and it opened up doors and made me think differently as a #higher professional #sachat

6:30 pm shillis @geralyn5 we are next week, but I am taking students on ASB for Habitat build in SC. Wishing I had that week in the office! #sachat

6:30 pm eventRobot I'm searching for #sachat live on TweetGrid Search - <http://tweetgrid.com/search?q=%23sachat>

6:30 pm jkilmer I disagree with 3 year. That may be good for the first job out of UG but after that it can be 1 year or 10 depending on circumstance #sachat

6:30 pm jchan027 Question: What would you all look for in candidate w/ #studentaffairs M.Ed. but work exp. is in nonprofit/education sector? #sachat #sachat

6:31 pm bryan_koval @Ivanlysal My supervisors have always been supportive. Help me prepare, offer to be references. #sachat

6:31 pm chrsblckbrn Do you think the "millinial" mindset affects people staying in jobs for shorter periods of time? #sachat

6:31 pm edcabellon @JeannetteMarie It seems to me you're taking advantage of this pro dev here :-)
Try not to let it get you down Easier said, I know.. #SAchat

6:31 pm courtneysprague @johnsilveria good to see you on here! saw the Orientation postion listed I was temped to apply! #sachat

6:31 pm AndreaHart @shillis I've done that, trust me, its really great face time with students in a situation ripe with teachable moments! #sachat

6:31 pm JGinese23 RT @chrsblckbrn: Do you think the "millinial" mindset affects people staying in jobs for shorter periods of time? #sachat good ?

6:31 pm bryan_koval @jchan027 Related experience. The cover letter might be crucial for that type of applicant to demonstrate connections. #sachat

6:31 pm shillis @Ivanlysal I've always had great supervisors that encouraged prof dev and career benefitting opportunities. great thing about SA #sachat

6:32 pm edcabellon @jchan027 For me, its about transferrable experience and fit. I can mentor/teach the rest. :-)
#SAchat

6:32 pm courtneysprague @chrsblckbrn I think so, my cohort has already started thinking about switching and how long they have to stay in a position #sachat

6:32 pm briannemcd @shillis I'm going on ASB with Habitat! To SC-Myrtle Beach! We leave Sunday! #SAchat

6:32 pm Ivanlysal @jchan027 I'd look for supervision skills, project management, relationship building, vision, etc. #sachat

6:32 pm Geralyn5 @Ivanlysal mine have been awesome helping me develop and giving me opp. to grow #sachat

6:32 pm AndreaHart @chrsblckbrn I think there is much less institutional loyalty than there has been in past generations. Thats across all industries. #sachat

6:33 pm Geralyn5 @shillis thats right!! Have so much fun!! #sachat

6:33 pm courtneysprague @chrsblckbrn and we only graduated last year #sachat

6:33 pm slhealy @chrsblckbrn My cohort (all Millenials) is mostly just worried about finding a job we like... not where to go in another 2 years. #sachat

6:33 pm Geralyn5 @shillis I will try and call you soon :) #sachat

6:33 pm jmayojr @Ivanlysal with mine it depends on the day #sachat

6:33 pm JeannetteMarie @edcabellon Thanks for the encouragement. Really looking forward to some pro dev at #ACPA10 #sachat

6:33 pm shillis @briannemcd Awesome! We'll be in Myrtle Beach Sunday. Working with Marion, SC Habitat chapter #sachat

6:33 pm timstjohn @courtneysprague I know, it is odd to me that many of them are switching after a year or 2 #sachat

6:33 pm danielwmurphy @Ivanlysal @shillis I do now. But haven't always been so lucky. I think sometimes SA pros forget responsibility to mentor young pros #sachat

6:33 pm edcabellon @AndreaHart Agreed, which is why loyalty is an even more valuable characteristic to have today. #SAchat

6:34 pm jkilmer #sachat - here is a question or two: When is the right time to be public about a job search? Should supervisor always be involved? #sachat

6:34 pm Brown_Melissa @jchan027 Good question- I'm in a similar situation- have many years in non-profit #sachat

6:34 pm Geralyn5 As a millennial I am not looking to leave, but looking to see what is out there. #sachat

6:34 pm edcabellon @JeannetteMarie If it's anything like meeting folks at #ACUI2010, it will be a blast. Right @debrasanborn? #SAchat

6:34 pm changeiseternal @slhealy really? I got those questions a lot during my 2nd round interviews. Makes me nervous bc my plans r not concrete at all #sachat.

6:34 pm chrsblckbrn @AndreaHart I agree!!! #sachat

6:34 pm courtneysprague @timstjohn I thought it was just me, but even that a few still haven't found a studentaffairs job, sad #sachat

6:34 pm JenPaulin @Ivanlysal It depends. I look to my mentors for advice & planning & then work with my supervisor to find the opportunities I want. #sachat

6:34 pm timstjohn I apologize for being late....how long is too long to stay in one position? #sachat

6:34 pm tobiasblake RT @Geralyn5: As a millennial I am not looking to leave, but looking to see what is out there. #sachat

6:34 pm AndreaHart @edcabellon it does make me feel a bit weird to go into year 4 in my 1st position when several in my cohort have moved already! #sachat

6:34 pm cleders At #TPE and taking a break between interviews to participate in #sachat! :) What is the topic? #sachat

6:34 pm HFIELDS33 @jchan027 the ability to articulate those trnsfrble skills with out being prompted make it explicit in resume CL and at interv w #SACHAT

6:34 pm bryan_koval @kriscarr442 Interesting! I would be intentional about getting feedback from them, being open with them when you are jobsearching. #sachat

6:34 pm MalloryBower @danielwmurphy Agreed. It is easy to feel lost as a new professional. #sachat

6:35 pm JeannetteMarie Saw a position I would love posted. But requires a move that I can't do until 2011 :/ Ugh! #sachat

6:35 pm edcabellon @Geralyn5 That's fair, you should always keep your options open. #SAchat

6:35 pm shillis @geralyn5 I know! Much needed catchup :) Hopefully I'll see you Memorial Day weekend #sachat

6:35 pm slhealy @changeiseternal I only got one "where after here" question, didn't hear much about future from other grads I was at OPE with. #sachat

6:35 pm jmayojr @HFIELDS33 hey my friend #sachat

6:35 pm bryan_koval @jkilmer I would always keep my supervisor in the loop, but that's the culture of our department. No fear about doing it. #sachat

6:35 pm tsand Silly question. How the hell do you tell what the OFFICIAL QUESTION for the #sachat is? Are there no official questions? Q1:

6:35 pm JGinese23 When it comes to searching and experience - better to centralize on one aspect or try to bounce around? Activities, Reslife, acdmic? #sachat

6:35 pm lvanlysal @jkilmer I always tell my supervisor. but we have a fantastic. Bigger effect is on coworkers who think you're not committed #sachat

6:35 pm Geralyn5 @shillis are you going to be in biltown? #sachat

6:36 pm edcabellon @AndreaHart You've positioned yourself much better. I'd rather meet a pro with 1 job-4yrs exp, than a pro with 2-3 jobs-4yrs exp. #SAchat

6:36 pm courtneysprague do you think new professionals have to be less picky about what their looking for in order to secure a job during this time? #sachat

6:36 pm JeannetteMarie @timstjohn when opportunity for growth & advancement have passed you by more than 2x or you've gone as far as you can and want more #sachat

6:36 pm jenontheblock Don't discount the ability to sell yourself, both on paper (cover letter) and in an interview! #sachat

6:37 pm jkilmer @lvanlysal and THAT is the issues i have seen - supervisor will support - colleagues question commitment and follow through concerns #sachat

6:37 pm JGinese23 RT @edcabellon U've positioned yourself much better. I'd rather meet a pro w1 job-4yrs exp, than a pro w2-3 jobs-4yrs exp. #SAchat #sachat

6:37 pm shillis @geralyn5 I think so! Looks like I don't leave for Texas until June 2, so I can stay the week after #naca HLW with my fam. #sachat

6:37 pm HFIELDS33 @jmajojr whts up? some student from #IUPSAHE came up to visit on monday for WNYPE #SACHAT

6:37 pm donnyjenkins I'm getting real-time search results at TweetGrid <http://tweetgrid.com/> #sachat

6:37 pm kprentiss @tsand it's a very friendly democracy. we vote when you're not paying attention, and then that determines what you can and cannot do #sachat

6:37 pm Geralyn5 @courtneysprague I think as a new pro you can learn and grow at any EL position. Its what you make of it #sachat

6:37 pm MalloryBower @courtneysprague you can be picky about job details if you're willing to relocate #sachat

6:37 pm timstjohn Another great article about @edcabellon and his presentation to UNE Student Leaders in the Nor'Easter News today! #sachat

6:37 pm NASPAtweets RT @JeannetteMarie: @timstjohn when opportunity for growth & advancement have passed you by more than 2x or you've gone as far as you can and want more #sachat

6:38 pm jmajojr @HFIELDS33 thats great, I love seeing #IUPSAHE students looking for jobs #sachat

6:38 pm bryan_koval @courtneysprague Depending on their sense of urgency. Geography is probably the criteria to be most flexible about. #sachat

6:38 pm BeccaFick Im building a lot of diverse exp as a grad, how long before it expires and I need to regain those exp? #sachat

6:38 pm jkilmer @lvanlysal I have also seen it the other way around too where the colleagues are supportive but supervisor questions commitment #sachat

6:38 pm JenPaulin @jkilmer There is a point when they need to know, but depending on why you're searching that might be later in the process. #sachat

6:38 pm timstjohn sorry did not mean for my last tweet to have #sachat tag on it, but nonetheless, kudos to @edcabellon!

6:39 pm Ivanlysal gotta head out to do some interviews. Thanks #sachat! Always a pleasure.

6:39 pm edcabellon @courtneysprague YES. Get you're foot in the door and build your experiences. You can't get too picky in your first job. #SAchat

6:39 pm jessicacriswell #sachat i think the biggest takeaway for me this year having searched was know what you can and cannot compromise on.

6:39 pm briannemcd just keep challenging yourself in any position! #sachat

6:39 pm Ivanlysal @jkilmer I only tell trusted colleagues, but know eventually word will get out. definitely don't let student employees know. #sachat

6:39 pm AndreaHart @BeccaFick don't think about it as "expiration", continue to update it in your prof. position. Volunteer in other func. areas #sachat

6:39 pm bryan_koval @JenPaulin @jkilmer I have seen the co-worker effect most evident on internal processes. It can get tough! #sachat

6:39 pm JeannetteMarie Aw, I want an interview with @Ivanlysal #sachat

6:39 pm courtneysprague @jmayojr & @MalloryBower Thanks! #sachat

6:39 pm edcabellon @timstjohn Thanks Tim! IT was great seeing UNE at the #ACUI2010 conf. Make sure you come to Chicago next year :-) #SAchat

6:40 pm jmayojr in grad school I was told... you can do anything for 2 or 3 years.... it's so true #sachat

6:40 pm jchan027 @bryan_koval @hfields33 Yes, resume/cover letter seem key - need to be able to secure interview, so one has opportunity to elaborate #sachat

6:40 pm Geralyn5 RT @jmayojr: in grad school I was told... you can do anything for 2 or 3 years.... it's so true #sachat

6:40 pm kriscarr442 I've seen the issue of other dept/areas being suspicious of you trying to volunteer with them #sachat

6:40 pm timstjohn @courtneysprague Great to see you on #sachat! We need to get more of our fellow Huskies on here as they would truly benefit

6:40 pm MalloryBower @jmayojr I always hated that! But find myself saying it to others! #sachat

6:40 pm JGinese23 Is a second masters pointless? and should one just make the jump for Phd/Edd instead? #sachat

6:41 pm timstjohn RT @m1hamilton: what would hirers out there say is the best transferable skill to have/market. #sachat

6:41 pm jmayojr @MalloryBower I've said it to 3 students this week #sachat

6:41 pm jmayojr @MalloryBower thank you Dr. Belch #sachat

6:41 pm courtneysprague @timstjohn agreed! Looking to get more people together the weekend of ACPA if you're around or want to come down we can mention it! #sachat

6:41 pm sarahhcraddock #sachat #tpe I'd like to organize a tweetup during TPE - is anyone interested?

6:41 pm tsand @Ivanlysal I understand the topic. But jumping into the #sachat search stream mid conversation is confusing. Labeled Qs could help.

6:42 pm jmayojr @Brown_Melissa you should tell her ... she'll love it #sachat

6:42 pm Brown_Melissa @jchan027 I worked in youth ministry for 4 1/2 years before the career switch to SA. U? #sachat

6:44 pm briannemcd @slhealy is it okay as an undergrad to have 2 page plus 1 for references as an undergrad if ALL the experience is relevant? #sachat

6:44 pm JeannetteMarie @JGinese23 I'm not an expert, but I could see a second masters being good in that situation. I have thought of instructional design #sachat

6:44 pm KARupert What about if you have functional experience and transferable skills from a previous career? Should those stay on your resume? #sachat

6:44 pm courtneysprague RT @JGinese23: basically as you leave your first position after grad school - what is the page limit? #sachat

6:45 pm JenPaulin @JGinese23 Mine was 2 until I moved out of an entry level (RD) position #sachat

6:45 pm kriscarr442 with Resumes its important to not repeat skills from older jobs, and have them updated in current positions #sachat

6:45 pm jmajojr @Geralyn5 @briannemcd just make sure it's not filler. Filler is the worst on a resume #sachat

6:45 pm Brown_Melissa @KARupert To keep mine at 2 pages I just list those positions and the year. My professors haven't said to do it differently #sachat

6:46 pm jkilmer @JGinese23: oops... i must be in the minority. I am in my 3rd institution and position with Bachelors and Masters and have 4 pages #sachat

6:47 pm briannemcd @jmayojr I'd love to send mine over- I've had it looked over before but more constructive criticism would be great. #sachat

6:47 pm jmayojr @m1hamilton: @briannemcd she's a great resource, she critiqued at mine a few weeks ago #sachat

6:47 pm edcabellon @jchan027 You'd have to illustrate in an interview how you would navigate that as a new SA pro. I've seen it done b4! #SAchat
